Code of Ethics for Members

Lake Hill Lawn Bowling Club's Code of Ethics is grounded in the following principles:

Respect For Others

The principle of respect challenges members to act in a manner respectful of the dignity of all participants in sport regardless of their connection to the sport. Fundamental to this principle is the basic assumption that each person has value and is worthy of respect.

Responsible Action

The principle of responsible action carries the basic ethical expectation that the activities of members will benefit society in general and participants in particular and will do no harm. Fundamental to the implementation of this principle is the notion that each member is responsible for the consequences of their actions or inactions.

Integrity

Integrity means that members are expected to be honest, sincere, and honourable in their relationships with others. Acting on these values is most possible when members possess a high degree of self-awareness and the ability to reflect critically on how their perspectives influence their interactions with others

Honouring Sport

The principle of honouring sport in general and lawn bowling in particular challenges members to recognize, act on, and promote the value of lawn bowling for individuals and teams and for society in general.

Code of Conduct for Members
